

VILMOS

COMEDIAN-MUSICIAN-ENTREPRENEUR

Vilmos, divorced with 3 children, is the host of the online radio show "The Green Room" and his online blog is viewed over 1,000 times a day. He is also a contributing writer for Life & Style Weekly Magazine in the "Style Slip Ups" section.

His Catholic school education and Midwestern upbringing give him a conservative background mixed in with a some-what twisted view on life in general. Touching on topics covering everything from weddings to prisons, this man's unique brand of standup comedy truly leaves audiences wondering... "How did he think of that!"
