

CHRIS DUNHAM

COMEDIAN

Chris Dunham took to standup comedy faster than a stripper to jacuzzi water. Only ten months after first getting on stage at The HaHa Comedy Club, this California native was being paid to travel and perform alongside headliners like Doug Stanhope. People everywhere connect to his unique perspectives on everything from race to currency. It's because he comes from a place of love, even though the love is filled with bitterness and rage. After the final jokes are told, audiences continue to laugh and talk about what they witnessed. Watching Chris is like being touched by a Holy Man...or a Creepy Man. You'll think a little different afterwards.
