

RODNEY GENTHER

COMEDIAN

Rodney Genter's comedy style is much like Christian rock music; you're going to find some stuff in it about Jesus, and chances are it will make some Christians cry. That being said, his comedy does feature Jesus along with many other interesting topics that require thought and rely on precise references. Rodney believes that commercial comedy is the basis for cheap laughs and is completely against this. As for Rodney's unique topical presentations...well, I think we can safely say more than one person has gone home wondering just where Rodney might be headed come his final curtain call. This is not saying that the entirety of his material is awful in nature, just the best parts are. But who's to say you can't make people think and cringe at the same time? Definitely, not Rodney!
