

ROGER LIZAOLA

COMEDIAN

His razor sharp wit, powerful stage presence, and uncanny ability to say out loud what others only dare to think, is the crux of Roger Lizaola's steady rise to fame in the world of live comedy entertainment.

Growing up on the mean streets of Gilroy, CA Roger always had the knack for getting friends and others laughing, but to get on "stage" was absolutely terrifying. After moving to Seattle in 2003. It was at the original Comedy Underground that he took plunge. The first years were hard and humbling, but Roger stuck with it and is now one of the hottest new acts getting noticed in the Northwest.

Along with comedy greats, when they play the NW scene you'll find Roger opening for acts like The Black Eyed Peas, Pussycat Dolls, Baby Bash, Rhianna, The Fabulous Thunderbirds, The Backstreet Boys and more.
