

LAURA PARK

COMEDIAN

Laura's infectious humor and memorable characters are a hit with audiences across the country.

Laura is a regular performer at the Hollywood Improv and Comedy Store, She recently completed a network taping for the Comedy Time Network, and performed in "Comedy for our Troops" with the Irvine Improv. Her nationally toured solo show Park-n-Ride was performed in the New York International Fringe Festival.

Originally from the Midwest, solid character work colors her show. "Laura Park is an engaging performer with a knack for witty characterization." Says L.A. Weekly.

Her stage energy is warm and contagious. "Laura Park is infectiously enjoyable." Says NYTheatre.com. Laura's originality shines as she muses on the art of sneaking, turns the tables on Wisconsin deer hunting, and attempts to cheer someone out of a coma. She recently completed a supporting role opposite Jessica Lange in the movie "Bonneville" coming to theaters this year.

