

DENNIS ROSS

COMEDIAN

Dennis Ross is a comedian with cutting edge material delivered in an old school way. He can tell a joke and sometimes he does. In a time when a lot of comedians make the audience the show by picking on them, Dennis sticks to the material that he has written. All of his material is not for everyone but he has something for everybody. It's a fast paced show told at a slow pace. It's the cable guy versus Godzilla. It's new and yet it feels comfortable. Dennis has taken his act to Iraq to entertain the troops and to The Sudbury Comedy Festival to entertain Canadians. He's been mentioned in the New York Times and was sued by a magician on "The People's Court". Now he's on the road and coming to you.
