

HOWARD STONE

COMEDIAN-ACTOR-CARTOONIST-WRITER

Howard Stone is the best kept secret in Show Business. He's an accomplished stand up comedian, actor, writer and cartoonist.

His unconventional comedy style is both laid back and manic. Sitting on a stool (usually his own) Howard lures his audience into his world by weaving personal stories with sharp one-liners and improvisation. Being a father, he spouts alternative family values with edge and irony. He proudly extols the importance of ether as a viable tool for child rearing then launches effortlessly into tirades about pop culture, his Jewish roots, sobriety, coping with mental illnesses, commercialism and all the other absurdities of life.

He is the host of his own uniquely twisted talk show, aptly called The Howard Stone Show with the Danny Dechi Orchestra. Now in it's 7th year, Howard has created some memorable theme shows such as Extreme Drag Queen Make Over, Old Crap Road Show, Iron Balloon, and Banjo Idol.
