

RICHIE STRATTON

COMEDIAN

(The world youngest dirty old man)

Richie has been onstage since he was thirteen. Working in high school, collage, and Community Theater. He even worked as a male model before turning 21 and starting his stand-up comedy carrier. Unfortunately Rich still looks like he's 15. His young look and innocent persona will be shattered the minute he opens his mouth.

Rich gets his unique outlook on life by growing up in the suburbs of Portland Oregon, on the dark side of "Regan's America." Most of his material is based on his family, failed relationships, and the many interesting encounters Rich has experienced performing comedy all over the United States. So sit back, relax, and feel free to laugh at yourself.

"Richie is one of the brightest young comics I've seen in 11 years hosting the show in Butte, Mt. He's got great timing, a fresh outlook, and he connects with audiences of all ages. This young man is going far!"
