

VINCE VALENZUELA

COMEDIAN-ACTOR-WRITER

JUST PLAIN FUNNY is a phrase used to describe Vince Valenzuela's unique style. His winning approach is a blend of "loveable sarcasm and cynicism" delivered through big Donnie Osmond/Eric Estrada pearly-white teeth. Vince enjoys revealing the hypocrisies, double standards and dysfunction's of human behavior. Whether he's poking fun at his family, his ethnicity, social trends, pop-culture, alcohol abuse, sex, smoking, relationships, current events, or our impatient "remote control society"....he keeps audiences laughing across the nation.

Vince has gained national recognition from several television appearances including: Comedy Central's Make Me Laugh and A&E's An Evening at the Improv, HBO's Loco Slam, USA's Up All Night, Si'Tv's "Funny is Funny", Entertainment Tonight and many more. His nationally released CD's "DERAINDAMAGED" and Verbal Vigilante" have received enormous praise and are played regularly on XM Satellite radio. Vince's traditional, straight, no frills stand-up comedy is what his fans appreciate and what he delivers. He's entertaining, engaging, and if you have to label him, he's JUST PLAIN FUNNY!
